The STAFF Newsletter

WE WILL BEGIN our summertime worship schedule the first Sunday after Memorial Day. Starting Sunday, June 2nd, the worship services will begin at 9:30 am, with fellowship following at 10:30 am. This schedule will run through the summer. The 10:00 am services will resume after Labor Day.

THE WEDNESDAY MORNING "Guy's Morning Out" Bible study group will be taking a break for the summer starting after Memorial Day, and will resume after Labor Day. The last meeting will be Wednesday, May 22nd at 8:00 am.

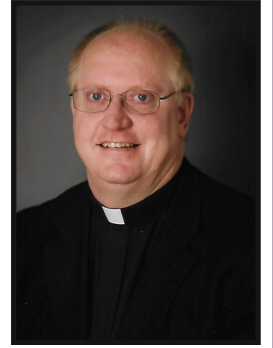

On April 7th, we welcomed new members Michelle Nunn and Axel Webb.

“Time to Breathe”

Grace and peace to you from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ

In the busyness of this world, wouldn't it be nice to take some time to refresh? In the brokenness that seems to surround us, doesn't it sound good to be renewed? In a culture of non-stop things to do, never finding a moment for ourselves, and always more work to be done than there are hours in the day, wouldn't you love to build your relationship with Christ, and rest in our Lord and Savior. If only for a little while.

Maybe, just maybe, now is the moment when we join together, and take some time to breathe.

Many of us already receive that, in our weekly Sunday morning worship. It offers us solace from the world around us, a time to gather and give thanks, and a chance to once again receive God's forgiveness. Called, and then sent to share the good news with the world.

But, society around us is changing. Many, work jobs on Sunday morning. Others, use the weekends to visit family and friends. Unfortunately, no longer available for Sunday service. Still, others have children involved in activities that involve time when service is going on. And let's face it, some of us just like to sleep in a bit.

And although I am a believer that God and church should be the priority in your life, I also understand that the church needs to be more available. So that people who have other obligations and responsibilities aren't faced with ultimatums.

Besides, with all the other demands on our lives, shouldn't church be a place of welcome and solace, instead of another source of stress, guilt, and one more thing on our to-do lists? This is why, we at Good Shepherd, are going to embark on something new.

“Time to Breathe” will offer another opportunity for this community to come together in worship. It will be offered at 6:00 pm on Sunday evenings beginning May 19th, along with our Sunday morning service. It will still contain the elements of what we know as the “traditional” service. Communion, confession, prayers, readings, etc.

But it will be done differently. I invite you to come and experience it for yourself. There will be no bulletins, and no books. And it will be centered on deepening your relationship with God. So, not only will it give the community added availability to worship, but also a choice to receive which service feeds them.

So, tell your friends, your neighbors, and even the strangers that you meet. If you are longing to reconnect with God, but just can't seem to attend Sunday morning service, now is your “Time to Breathe.” Come as you are, and leave renewed, refreshed, forgiven, and filled with God's unending grace. Peace and joy be with you, Pastor Mike.
